

CRYO BEADS

Reference : CRYOBILLES

Cryo beads are a simple way to keep important microorganisms free of contamination. The product is composed of 25 porous beads in a vial filled with a broth containing glycerol. Microorganisms stick to the porous surface of the beads. Excess broth is aspirated, the flasks can then be stored at -70°C in a freezer.