

Reference : NOURRI

Vipagran serum is a well-known composite feed made from soft pellets for all fish feeding in the middle layers of the water.

The carefully selected ingredients, with prebiotic effect, promote good health and vitality.

The granules, being very digestible and slowly descending to the bottom, keep their shape for a long time and do not pollute the water.